This illustration show the proposed Central Florida Veterans Memorial Park at Lake Nona, which will hor

F or All Who Have Fallen.

This moving inscription will be etched on the massive archway that will serve as the entrance to the plan the memorial has been privately funded, however, some local public funding may be provided.

Granite monuments will list the names of 1,100 local fallen soldiers, representing Brevard, Lake, Orang

The four-acre park will feature shaded areas and benches where visitors can reflect and pay tribute to u

To accomplish this mission, the Central Florida Veterans Memorial Park Foundation was created. This n

“Our immediate goal is to have $1 million in cash and commitments by the end of this year, so we can st

This illustration show the proposed Central Florida Veterans Memorial Park at Lake Nona, which will ho

An important component to the success of the project is the land on which the memorial park will be sit

“The veterans memorial will be an important addition to Lake Nona and will no doubt become a focal po

Others have stepped forward to make the memorial a reality. RLF, an architecture, planning, engineerin

Appropriately, the lakefront park will be located across from the south entrance of the Orlando VA Medic

According to CFVMPF, Central Florida is the No. 1 destination for veterans returning from deployment a

The entrance to the VA Medical Center will bear its own inscription: For Those Who Serve.

The anticipated world-class memorial park will serve as a meaningful symbol of patriotism, not only for p

“Even though our economy has been weak, we always must remember that those we are honoring and

For more information about the Central Florida Veterans Memorial Park at Lake Nona or how to n