The Spa at The Peabody, located at 9801 International Drive in Orlando, was completed as part of the The Peabody Orlando's recent $450 million expansion. The 22,000 square foot spa and fitness center spans two floors and includes 12 treatment rooms, a full-service hair and nail salon, and 8,000-square-foot fitness facility. The spa boasts two outdoor balcony treatment options, two skin-care rooms, four massage rooms, four body treatment rooms with Swiss showers, and two couples suites with Kohler infinity bathtubs. The menu offers facials and signature treatments, as well as makeup and skin-care products. For more information, call 407-352-4000 or visit www.peabodyorlando.com on the Web.

Musgrave Building & Restorations Inc. was ranked No. 2 among Central Florida's largest remodeling companies and No. 13 among the area's largest custom homebuilders in the Orlando Business Journal's 2011 Book of Lists. This is the first time the company has appeared on either list. Company principal Jeff Musgrave, noted for his historic renovations in downtown Orlando and Winter Park, earned $2.7 million in revenue in 2009. Musgrave Building & Restorations also was a two-time winner in last year's Parade of Homes. For more information, call 407-412-6925 or visit www.musgravebuilding.com on the Web.

Bravo Cucina Italiana, located at 7924 Via Dellagio Way in the Dellagio, offers diners a new Spring Feature Menu that includes eggplant, portobello mushrooms, fresh herbs, ripe berries and more. The spring menu is available through July 10. For more information, call 407-351-5880 or visit www.bravoitalian.com on the Web.

Attending the National Drowning Prevention Awareness Kickoff are Orange County Sheriff and Dr. Phillips resident Jerry Demings and Sheila Grant, who lost a child to drowning.

The Gift of Swimming and Children's Safety Village of Central Florida co-hosted the National Drowning Prevention Awareness Kickoff. Event speakers included child safety expert Richard Schwamm; Orange County Sheriff and Dr. Phillips resident Jerry Demings; and Kevin Sherin, M.D., director of the Orange County Health Department. The kickoff also included a program that focused on survival skills for children, as well as provided information to parents to ensure their homes are safe. For more information, call 407-905-0999 or visit www.giftofswimming.org on the Web.

Curtis Hodges, founder of Hodges Brothers Roofing Inc., celebrates the company's 33rd anniversary.

Curtis Hodges, founder of Hodges Brothers Roofing Inc., located at 1201 W. Amelia St. in Orlando, celebrated the company's 33rd anniversary. Founded in 1978, Hodges Brothers Roofing offers general contracting services that range from basic remodeling to full home renovations. For more information, call 407-650-0013 or visit www.hodgesbrothers.net on the Web.Universal Orlando Resort representatives announced plans for a new 36-hole miniature golf experience at Universal CityWalk. Hollywood Drive-In Golf will be completed in early 2012 and include two state-of-the-art 18-hole courses. Inspired by classic drive-in films, the attraction will be based on vintage horror and science fiction films from the 1950s. For more information, call 407-363-8000 or visit www.universalorlando.com
on the Web.
Designer fashion at affordable prices.

Créme De La Créme, a designer consignment shop, has opened in downtown Windermere in Suite A at 505 Main St. The shop is unique in that it offers designer labels for all age groups. Owner Angela Burton believed it was important for all shoppers to be included in the designer consignment experience. Créme De La Créme carries numerous design brands, including Louis Vuitton, Gucci, Citizen, Ferragamo, Diane von Furstenberg, Prada, Fendi, St. John, Juicy Couture, True Religion and more. All items are in pristine condition and carefully inspected and authenticated. The shop is currently accepting unwanted designer items, and Burton offers convenient pickup services. Store hours are Tuesday through Saturday from 10 a.m.-5 p.m. For more information or to make an appointment, call 407-583-7877 or email purses2die4@gmail.com .