Southwest Orlando cities receive new medical transport service

Rural/Metro Ambulance, which provides emergency and nonemergency medical transportation in 20 sta

The communities' city councils voted to approve Rural/Metro as their primary emergency-services provic

Previously, Health Central provided ambulance service to the cities. Under the new arrangements, Rura

For more information, call 800-352-2309 or visit www.rmetro.com on the Web.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

West Orange Chamber of Commerce held a Golf Means Business luncheon at DoubleTree Orlando Hot

West Orange Chamber of Commerce members attended a Golf Means Business luncheon at Double Tree Orlando Hotel at the Entrance to Universal Orlando. The event was presented by Health Ce

Holly Geoghegan, president of Golf Marketing Services and hostess of the Golf Insiders radio show on E

www.westorangechamber.com

Southwest residents are invited to a Holiday Open House on Dec. 3 at The Marketplace at Dr. Phillips.

The Marketplace at Dr. Phillips, located at the corner of Sand Lake Road and Dr. Phillips Boulevard, will

www.themarketplaceatdrphillips.com

Andrew Asher, Rebecca Myers and Phil Tischer were elected to the board of directors for the Central Fl

Southwest residents Eric and Sally Martell (far left) of Re/Max Properties S.W. Inc. and Hudson McMurtr

Eric and Sally Martell of Re/Max Properties S.W. Inc., located at 6985 Walace Road in Orlando, recentl www.orlandoproperties.com

Bravo Cucina Italiana, located at 7924 Via Dellagio Way in Orlando, will host a breakfast buffet with San www.bravoitaliano.com

Rosen Shingle Creek, located at 9939 Universal Blvd. in Orlando, will host the following holiday events: www.rosenshinglecreek.com

Tommy Bahama Sample Outlet, located in Suite 102 at 1235 N. Orange Ave. in Orlando, carries a huge

More News & Bizness Briefs