Huntington Learning Center offers a flexible schedule of academic instruction for all levels of students.

N o parent wants to see his child struggle in school. The fru

Huntington’s education professionals administer academic evaluation tests that identify strengths and w

Once the results are available, education professionals review each test step by step with the parents. F

Instruction begins at levels where the child feels comfortable. This approach gives the student a sense o

Communication is an important component in the process. After the initial meeting with parents, another

With permission from parents, Huntington education professionals also will conduct school visits to discu

“We get back to the basics,” said Jessica Anderson, Huntington’s executive director.

Instead of relying on computers, students complete everything on paper. This helps to develop the skill o

When an assignment is completed, it is immediately graded and given back to the student with an expla

“Our goal is 100 percent accuracy,” Anderson said.

“We have a great and experienced team,” she added.

Anderson earned a degree in exceptional student education from the University of Central Florida and w

All Huntington teachers are either accredited through the state of Florida, working as teachers in the pub

In addition to its core subjects, Huntington offers FCAT test preparation.

Facing this required standardized test can be daunting, especially when passing is required for public hi

As college admission becomes increasingly competitive, parents are looking for an edge to enhance the

Since there are no contracts, clients are not relegated to a set schedule. Students can come in at any sc

According to Anderson, students entering high school are finding it beneficial to study challenging cours

“If they are familiar with the subject going in, they will be more confident and more likely to do well durin

Others who take advantage of the facility’s services are adults seeking a refresher in math or writing bef

Huntington is a tutoring facility; however, Anderson stressed that the main goal is to teach students how

“Some parents will pay once a week for a violin lesson or for a ballet lesson, so why not come in for an a

“It’s been a fun and rewarding career path, and I love it,” Anderson said. “We help so many children rea

Huntington Learning Center, located at 5960 D. Phillips Blvd. in Orlando, is open Monday throug www.huntingtonlearning.com