Southwest Orlando boasts an eclectic variety of cultural events, performance troupes and arts centers. Theater groups, museums and local attractions offer something to suit everyone. For those looking to learn for themselves, there are numerous music and dance schools, as well as art and acting studios that can teach students the skills they need to become true artists. Southwest Orlando Bulletin's seventh annual Cultural Arts Season Preview offers an up-close look at many of the area's most popular venues, groups and experienced schools.
